Memo China

20 March 1982

Dear [redacted]

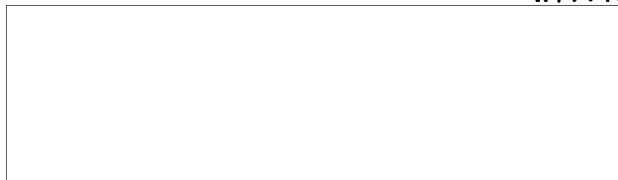

I want to thank you for arranging my meeting with [redacted] and his wife. I was greatly impressed by their dedication and outlook. We have carefully examined the papers left with us and there is no indication of any basis on which we could justify getting involved in his project. I hope that [redacted] found the broad discussion and the possibilities available to him of value.

I hope this finds you with your usual happy and positive outlook. Give my love to Virginia.

Yours,

Bill
